

CHARLES R.

Ight Trusty and entirely beloved Cousin and Councillor, Wee greet you well, Having used all possible and honourable means, by sending many gracious Messages to the two Houses of Parliament (wherein Wee have offered them all they have heretofore desired, and desired from them nothing, but what themselves since these unhappy wars have offered) to procure Our personall Treaty with them, for a safe and well grounded Peace, And having in stead of a durifull and Peaceable returne, to Our said Messages, received either no Answer at all, or such as argues that nothing will satisfie them, but the ruine, not only of Vs, Our Posteritie and friends, but even of Monarchy it selfe, And having lately received very good securitie, that Wee and all that doe and shall adhere to Vs, shall be safe in Our Persons, Honour, and Consciences, in the Scotts Armie, and that they shall really and effectually joyne with Vs, and with such as will come in unto Vs, and joyne with them, for our preservation, and shall imploy their Armies and Forces to assist Vs, to the procuring of a happy and well grounded Peace, for the good of Vs, and Our Kingdoms, and in the recovery of Our just Rights, Wee have resolved to put Our Selfe to the hazard of passing into the Scotts Army, now lying before Newark, and if it shall please God, that Wee come safe thither, Wee are resolved to use Our best endeavours, with their assistance, and with the conjunction of the Forces under the Command of Montrose, and such of Our well affected Subjects of England, as shall rise for Vs, to procure (if it may bee) a reasonable and speedy Peace, with those, who have hitherto refused to give eare to any meanes tending thereunto, Of which Our resolution Wee held it necessary to give you this Advertisement, as well to satisfie you, as all Our Councill, and Loyal Subjects with you (to whom Wee will that you comunicate these Our Letters) that sayling in Our earnest and sincere desire, by Treaty to put an end to the miseries of this Our Kingdome, Wee esteemed Our selfe obliged to leave no way unattempted, to preserve Our Crowne and friends, from the usurpation and tyranny of those whose designs are so manifestly, their designe is, to overthrow the Lawes and happy established Government of this Kingdome, And we have made knowne to you Our resolution, Wee recommend to your speciall Care, the disposing and managing of Our Affaires on that side, as you shall conceive most for Our Honour and Service, being confident, that the course Wee have taken (though with some hazard to Our Person) will have a good influence, on that Our Kingdome, and deserv, if not prevent, the Rebels transporting of Forces from these parts into that Our Kingdome, And Wee desire you to let all Our well affected Subjects on that side of Our Princely Care of them, whereof they shall receive the effect, as soone as God shall enable Vs, Wee desire you to use some meanes to let Vs and Our Councill at Oxon, heare frequently from you, of your Actions and Condition there, And so God prosper your Loyall Endeavours. Given at Our Court at Oxon, the third day of April, 1646.

By His Majesties Command

Edw. Nicholas.

His Majestie having by His Royall Letters directed to Vs the Lord Lieutenant Dated the third of Aprill last, required Vs to comunicate the said Letters to His Councill, and Loyal Subjects with Vs, Wee to the end to obey His Majesties good pleasure by His said Letters declared, doe hereby require the Printer to imprint two hundred Coppies of the said Letters according to the above writing being True Copie of the said Letters.
